

John Buzolich, MBA – Fiscal Administrative Officer

John Buzolich has a background in finance administration, team leadership, and information systems management. He serves as a Fiscal Administrative Officer for the County of Yolo which he joined in 2006. His professional goals are predominantly focused on workplace efficiency, financial stability, and leveraging technology to improve organizational output. Education: BS, Information Systems Management, University of San Francisco. MBA, Finance, California State University, Dominguez Hills.

