

Tanya Narath, MBA – Department Information Systems Manager, Privacy & Security Officer

Tanya Narath has over 20 years of leadership and management experience in the fields of technology, sustainability, and community engagement. She is the Information Systems Manager for the County of Sonoma's Department of Health Services. In her role she leads the development and implementation of IT solutions that support the department's vision to lead, collaborate, and succeed in making Sonoma County the healthiest county in California. Previously she was the Executive Director and CEO of the Leadership Institute for Ecology and the Economy and held various IT development and management positions with Hewlett-Packard and Agilent Technologies. Education: BS, Electrical Engineering, University of New Mexico. MBA, University of Texas at Austin.

